

Thursday Mar. 19. 40

Dear Friend:

I send you herewith
an Emanipator - pray
cut & come it like a club fit for the Gods.

Two columns is a half at least are wanted to fill up the paper - & I do not think you can walk into it sufficiently in less space.
So bring your column
into line & haze away.
I shall depend upon you

providing the editorial for this N.^o. as I am going to Cambridge today & to Dedham tomorrow.
If the copy is sent tomorrow afternoon it will be time.
I think of going over from Dedham tomorrow to Pittsfield to dine with W.R. & Anne.
If you have any commands will send them to my house this evening or to the Post R.R. depot tomorrow m^{orn} at Rock, I will take charge of them.

Truly yours

Edmund Quincy.
